10 SENSIBLE MEN

We have thus far refrained from any comment upon the attempt to inaugurate a temperance ticket in this city, because we wished the political character of the movement to be made plainly disclosed that none but the willing hand could fail to see. The absence of all such criticism has emboldened the secret instigators of this diversion to show their colors, and we think that by this time there can be very few sensible men in this community who have not discovered the rank of this very transparent scheme for re-electing the republican vote and thus rendering useless to the Democrats of this city as many more votes as they can by the combination. A more clever trick than this to accomplish the defeat of the republican party in this city could not be devised by the most unscrupulous politician. Are those men anxious for more temperance work than they have done? Ask them if they have failed to support a Democratic ticket in any of the elections in this city when the rum question was not directly in issue. There can be but one answer, and we predict without fear of contradiction that they will be found voting the straight Democratic ticket in September.

The very demand that no issues shall be made at a Legislative election exposes the motive of these men. They know perfectly well that a no-rum temperance ticket cannot carry this city and the only possible objection urged to such action is to cripple the Republican vote and so the effect on all Democrats. Can the temperance men of Bangor hope for any aid from a Democratic delegation at Augusta? We should say not. And now that the scheme has become so thoroughly understood, the temperance men of Bangor will take the best of care that Democrats are not elected by their aid.

The shallowness of this Democratic artifice renders it absurd. The temperance men of this city have no issue with the Legislature and cannot for a moment be accused of any lack of law. They say they want the law enforced and the only officer to be elected now who can have anything to do with enforcement is the Sheriff of the County. At our recent Convention the choice of a candidate was largely influenced by the wishes of the temperance men, and they secured the nomination of an officer who, they say, will execute the law. The Democrats have also nominated a candidate for Sheriff. Do the temperance men believe that he will enforce prohibition if elected? We imagine not. The temperance contest in the ensuing election, therefore, is according to the declarations of temperance men, to be found in the choice of a Sheriff. Does any one doubt that the Democrats who have created so ghastly at temperance meetings will be found at the polls voting for their party candidate? We do not.

The short of the story is that the Democrats of Bangor want to use the temperance men, if they can, to help them to send Democrats to the Legislature and to make a favorable showing in the city for their Bourbon candidate for Congress. There may possibly be a few persons so blinded or perverse as to fall into the snare, but the voters who make up the temperance sentiment of this city, have had experience enough to know their friends and their enemies, and they will refuse to be made catspaws for a party which is and ever has been the implacable foe of the temperance cause.

SENATOR FAMLIN'S CAREER.

A correspondent of the Biddeford Journal having said, "Hamlin has done nothing in his whole Senatorial course of twenty-five years, to find fault with, but then he has done nothing to praise," another writer replies as follows.—

I would ask, Mr Editor, if you can find another instance, in the political life of any man, of whose acts for twenty-five years, you can say, there is no fault in them. It seems to me his whole political record is one of praise. Has the Senator's life been simply a negative one, sailing along smoothly with the current, without leaving a ripple on the wave? Nay, but he has stood up manfully and fearlessly against the corruption of the times, stemming the tide of lobbyists, jobbers and schemers after government plunder. Senator Hamlin is not one of the blatant, spread eagle kind, full of talk and bravado before the battle but not to be found in the heat of the conflict.

You will find his vote, and his influence, quietly exerted, yet none the less potent, against every species of wrong. He is no salary grabber, neither neither could he be bought with Credit Mobilier stock. If Democrats should come this way, in search for an honest man to run against him, they are hoping and so do Senator Hamlin, without making a mistake! I doubt, Mr. Editor, if in these days of startling events and marvelous disclosures, one hundred men could be found in the State, (not to say the first hundred you may meet) of sounder judgment, clearer perceptions of the right, and more honest purposes to do the right, than Senator Hamlin. If he has not a "single qualification beyond a thousand of his neighbors, except that of having been paid for his faithful services to the government," then are we living among a community of whom we have reason to be proud, and of which I doubt if any other State can boast. If the Senator is an office weight, it is certainly to be desired, that his weight may not be diminished during the next six years, from the fourth of March, 1875.

I would praise him for his consistent life, for his devotion to duty, for his strict integrity, for his open manly acts, for his patriotism, in all of which he does nothing to conceal, and would praise him for his whole political career. And lastly I would praise him, that at the earnest wish of his many friends he has allowed his name to be used for re-election. Tried friends are true friends, and the Government want them more than they want new men. "No man having drank old wine, straitway desireth new, for he saith the old is better." The people will be found willing to stick to their old friend.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTIONS. The Hancock County and Fifth District Democratic Convention were held at Ellsworth Tuesday. The Times says the attendance at the latter was small, but one delegate being present from Waldo and none from Knox and Washington. Charles A. Spofford, of Deer Isle, was nominated for Congress, receiving 55 votes to 7 for W. H. Simpson and 1 for A. S. Lace.

The Belfast Journal, Mr Simpson's paper, awaits official information before putting up the candidate's name, and complains bitterly of sharp practice in fixing the Convention delays.

A thimble-rigging game like this is simply disgraceful. The leading Democrats of the district, and especially of Hancock county, should see that it is never allowed to be repeated.

The County Convention nominated Isaac Partridge and William A. Heath for senators, Calvin Kingman, for County Treasurer; E. W. Cleaves, for Commissioner, and Isaac A. Murch, for Clerk of Courts.

The second resolution of the Illinois Democratic platform declares for "Free commerce and no tariff except for revenue purposes." They are more cautious in the use of words than their Maine brethren.

KANSAS. The Kansas Republicans have nominated Gov Osborne and adopted a platform demanding economy, reduction of the national debt by easy stages, favoring free bank ng, with easy resumption of specie payments consistent with the public interests; and asking measures to secure cheap transportation. The repeal of the back pay law by Congress is commended, legislation against drunkenness is favored, and the third term is opposed, as well as any further grants of public lands to railroads.

SAGADAHOC COUNTY. The Bath Times, in its editorial reference to the harmonious action of the Sagadahoc County Convention, says:—

The gentlemen nominated are all well known to the people of the county and are widely worthy of the flattering vote which will be given them on the day of the election.

Gen Hyde, whose nomination for the Senate has been tendered him partly in consideration of his brilliant war record, and equally on account of his worth as a citizen and his fitness for the position, is the only candidate for whom a difference of feeling in him a faithful, honest and judicious legislator.

THE PRESIDENTIAL EXCURSION. The magnificent steamer City of Peking, belonging to the Pacific Mail Company, sailed from New York Wednesday morning on a three days' excursion to Newport, R. I., and return. The vessel was gaily decorated and the excursionists were President Grant, Vice President Wilson, Postmaster General Jewell, United States Senators Boutwell, Sumner, Chandler, Hoar and Ferry of Connecticut, the Hon. Burlow Weed and daughter, Collector Arthur and lady, Postmaster James of New York, Secretary Robeson, Surveyor Sharpe, Naval officer Ladin and representatives of all the daily papers of New York city. The President and his party landed at Newport en route for Martha's Vineyard.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Col J. E. Bryant, the organizer of the Republican party in Georgia, has been nominated for Congress in the Savannah District.

The Hon James Scovel has been converted from Liberalism to Republicanism, and wants to go to Congress from the First New Jersey District.

In Somerset, Franklin and Aroostook counties the anti Republican or Democratic conventions were called in one case as a "Peoples'" convention, in another as "Reform," and in another as "Peoples' Reform". The vote for the ticket nominated will be the Democratic vote as usual.—Lewiston Journal.

The National Era, Fred Douglass's paper, in commenting upon the general adverse criticism on South Carolina, insists that the maladministration of that State is not due to the negroes as a mass, but to individual negroes assisted by carpet-baggers and Democrats, and urges that the whole race should not be denounced on account of the crime of some of its members.

Gov Allen of Ohio recently gave the following remarkable testimony for a Democrat. "The Democrats came into office last January after our political opponents had held control of the State of Ohio for nearly twenty years, but we couldn't find, after the most careful examination, a single case of official corruption. They had done some things that were wrong, nothing was corrupt. They spent more money than a heavily taxed people well could bear, but they didn't steal any."

Andy Johnson has been especially active of late, and it is alleged in quarters that ought to know that he inspired the financial plank in the Indiana Democratic republican platform as well as that of Tennessee. During his administration, it will be remembered, he declared that bondholders had already received back more in interest than they had given for the bonds, and that therefore the Government need not trouble itself about the manner of paying the principal.

Dr. SCHENCK'S

Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills.

These medicines have undoubtedly performed more cures of Consumption than any other remedy known to the American public. They are composed of vegetable ingredients, and contain nothing which can be injurious to the human constitution.

Other remedies advertised as cures for Consumption, probably contain opium, which is a somewhat dangerous thing in all cases, and it taken freely by consumptive patients it is certain death. Their object is the tendency is to confine the morbid matter in the system, which, of course, must make a cure impossible.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is warranted not to contain a particle of opium. It is a compound of powerful but harmless herbs, which act on the liver, stomach and blood, and thus correct all morbid secretions. It is the only medicine which frees the body. These are the only means by which Consumption can be cured, and as Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup and Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills are the only medicines which operate in this way, it is obvious that they are the only medicines for Consumption. Schenck is professionally at the principal office, corner Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, and at the Quincy House, Boston, on the following Wednesdays, June 16th, and 30th, July 28th and 25th, and August 4th and 18th.

PROGRESSIVE FORCE

Simple and Durable in its Construction, As easy to Manage as a Parlor Organ. Large Assortment of Fine Engravings from Coal and Dust. Does not heat the Cellar

Manufactured by DIGHTON FURNACE CO.

In the construction of the Winthrop Hot Air Furnace it has been made a study to avoid the difficulties and annoyances too often found in Furnaces. Perfect air, free from gas and dust, a thing much desired is sought. Without enlarging upon the importance of warming and ventilating houses, about which so much has been written of late, we desire to call your attention to the Winthrop. We find that the pot lined with brick retains the furnace of cold air as it comes in from the shed so as not come in contact with red hot plates, destroying the vitality, but is delivered into the hot air chamber pure and healthy.

The radiator is made of the best Wrought Iron, and thoroughly tested as a steam boiler, insuring escape of gas and dust an impossibility; thus ensuring what cannot be guaranteed by any Cast Iron Furnace, which in many cases burn holes, and allow all gases here

The Radiator also ensures the even distribution of heat over the whole furnace, leaving no part useless thus making it the most powerful heater in the market. Another distinguishing feature of the Winthrop is the ease with which the fire can be cleaned out. This has been a serious difficulty with most furnaces, but has entirely overcome in the Winthrop. The accumulation of soot and ashes in the dome can be thoroughly removed in a few minutes. The Winthrop has been thoroughly tested, and we

THE BROOKLYN SCANDAL.

TILTON'S NEXT MOVE.

NEW YORK, August 27. Tilton's forthcoming statement in answer to Beecher is said to be an argumentative document dealing especially with that portion of Beecher's statement in which Tilton is represented as returning from a lecturing tour disheartened. Tilton attempts to show that he returned cheerful and flush.

BOWEN SUES THE BROOKLYN EAGLE.

Henry C. Bowen to-day appeared before Judge Reynolds in Brooklyn and instituted proceedings against the Brooklyn Eagle for publishing a false report of an interview alleged to have been held by one of its reporters, in which Bowen was represented as in antagonism to Beecher. Bowen also commenced suit for $50,000 damages against McDermott, the reporter who wrote the false interview He was bailed in $300

BOWEN PROMISES STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS.

In an interview to-day Bowen says he has been maliciously pursued by Kinsella of the Eagle, and will push the case to the extent of his whole fortune He says when the case comes before the court there will be a greater exposition of fraud and corruption than has yet come to the ears of the public and it will involve some new features of the Beecher Tilton matter.

"DISASTROUS TO TILTON'S CASE."

The Evening Telegram says that the effect of this suit will be disastrous to Tilton's case, as it is believed that Kinsella has now divulged secrets in his possession which he has withheld out of regard to his family. The suit has set the Beecher Committee in a flurry and several of its members have been in hurried consultation to day Their report will be made to-morrow night, Bingsley, who has been reported as offering $5000 to Tilton, has returned and denies the whole story

BOWEN GOES ALSO FOR THE ARGUS.

Bowen has also sued Demas Barnes for libel by printing in the Argus an alleged interview of one of their reporters with H K Smith. The Argus this afternoon insists to make the amends honorable to Bowen, giving the latter assurances of friendship. In court, however, Barnes was allowed to go on his own recognizance till to-morrow morning.

THE REPORT FINISHED.

The Beecher Committee held several informal consultations to day, and proceeded with the revising of their report, making a few modifications in it. This was their final meeting, and they announced their labors finished so far as their report was concerned, and that it was ready to be submitted at the Plymouth church meeting to-morrow evening arrived home in the evening from his visit to Beecher at the White Mountains, and states that Beecher is in excellent health. He has not received Beecher's answer to the summons and complaint brought against him by Tilton, but expects it in a few days.

THE LITTLE FOLKS. This afternoon and evening the original Tom Thumb and wife Comodore Nutt and Minnie Warren will give an entertainment at Norumbega Hall, consisting of songs, duetts, dances, laughable sketches, etc. Major Newall will also appear in his remarkable dance on parlor skates. An exchange speaks of the party and the General in particular as follows—

"We were glad to notice the other day that General Tom Thumb's long and varied public career has not weighed heavily on either his body or mind. He is just the same jovious, lively, little man, as when long ago he drew crowded audiences to look on his diminutive figure and listen to his pleasant little entertainments, and time, at all events, has dealt far more kindly with him than with others of his age; and after all he is no old —long life to him. Of Mrs. Tom, Miss Minnie and the Commodore, it is difficult to speak too highly. The ladies are simply charming, and the self possessed, womanly manner in which they speak, sing and act, is perfection itself. And the Commodore—well, we suppose nothing we can say will make him a prouder of himself and his versatile talents than he has a just right to be."

THE ODD-FELLOWS.

RETURN FROM THE CELEBRATION IN PORTLAND.

The Odd Fellows of this city, Oldtown and Dover returned from the grand celebration in Portland by the good steamer City of Richmond, arriving at 12 45 yesterday after a very pleasant passage. A delegation of their brethren, who were not participants in the pleasant excursion, met them at the landing, where, as soon as all had disembarked, the line was formed, and to the excellent music of the Bangor Cornet Band, they marched through the principal streets, on the east and west sides. The appearance and marching of both the Encampment and Lodges was fine, and among the great number in Portland it is not out of place to state that the Bangoreans were a credit to their city

After the march through our streets, the procession was disbanded temporarily, at the Franklin House, where an excellent dinner was served, and to which the excursionists did ample justice. The exercises at the table were brief, the brethren being called to order by Grand Master F. M. Laughton, and a blessing asked by Past Grand E. H. Fogg, the speeches after the meal being dispensed with.

Dinner over, the procession reformed and marched to Odd Fellows Hall, where it was disbanded. The brethren of this city are very enthusiastic in their descriptions of the celebration, which was fully equal to their expectations, and hope at some time to be able to show their brethren of Portland that the members of the order in Bangor not only know how, but will make manifest their own hospitality whenever an opportunity may offer.

The Oldtown and Dover Encampment and Lodges took the 5 15 train for home, parting from their brethren here with many expressions of friendship for the many attentions received at their hands.

Wednesday the Bangor Encampment took a special train on the Boston and Maine road and made a private excursion to Old Orchard Beach, where they had dinner at one of the hotels, and enjoyed themselves finely, returning to the city at 6 o'clock, and at half-past 9 marched to the steamer, and embarked for home.

THEATER

MISS LE CLERCQ'S BENEFIT.

Norumbega Hall was well filled last evening by a large and select audience, on the occasion of the benefit to Miss Carlotta Le Clercq, who has been delighting theatre goers the past week. The play was Gilbert's "Pygmalion and Galatea," founded on the story of the Greek sculptor who, after having carved a beautiful statue, falls in love with it prays the gods to endow it with life, and the prayer is granted. This legend is closely followed thus far; but in the play, Pygmalion Mr McDowell) has a wife Cynisca (Miss Noah), who returns after the transformation has been effected, and decidedly objects to have the animated statue (Miss Le Clercq) owing and beloved by the peccant husband In answer to Cynisca's prayers, Pygmalion is struck blind; this shock enables him to "see" the sin in loving another than his wife, but the latter has left him. Galatea, who is innocence embodied, is struck with horror at the evil she has unconsciously wrought, and prays to be turned again to marble, if thereby a reconciliation can be effected, and Pygmalion's sight restored. This is brought about and, after witnessing the happy reunion of Pygmalion and Cynisca, Galatea returns to her pedestal, and is changed back to marble.

Miss Le Clercq was very lovely as Galatea and her every gesture, step and pose was full of grace. The ignorance of the world, the innocent simplicity and frankness of the woman who found herself new-born from the cold marble into a hitherto unknown life, the development of an overmastering love for the man who created her, and its unconventional and outspoken revelation to the object of her affection, the unspeakable sadness experienced on discovering the ruin unwittingly brought by her upon the man she loved so well, the utter self-abnegation and willingness to sacrifice all—even life itself—to restore him to the sight and to the arms of his wife—all these were portrayed by this great actress with reality almost past belief, and the audience sat spell bound, only breaking the stillness to give round after round of applause. Miss Le Clercq was thrice called before the curtain, each time to receive a perfect ovation, amid a shower of bouquets and other floral tributes; and at the close of the first act, a large and beautiful structure of flowers and vines in the form of a crown was sent up to her.

Mr. McDowell, as Pygmalion, received a goodly share of the applause, and Miss Noah as Cynisca divided the honors with Miss Le Clercq, was called before the curtain, and was fairly rained upon by bouquets. Her acting was especially excellent in the scene where the curses Pygmalion and afterwards repents. Mr. Green, as the fussy old "antiquary," Chrysos, and Mrs. Jamison as Daphne, his strong-minded wife, were particularly good, and Miss Benedict as Myrene, Pygmalion's sister, and Mr. Cotter as Leucippe, her fiance, won a fair share of the commendation of the audience.

The performance closed with the farce, "Ici on Parle Francais," in which Miss Nosh, Mrs. Jamison, Miss Benedict, Miss Chippendale, Messrs. McDowell, Cotter and Gwenap pearsed, and treated no end of fun.

This performance concluded the season of the company in this city. Messrs. Nannary & McDowell brought a large and strong company, have produced none but first-class plays, and close in excellent style, and have fulfilled to the letter every promise they made—no small praise to bestow, but, as all who have attended the performances must acknowledge, fully deserved. It is to be regretted that their efforts have met with no more encouragement from our citizens and that they have suffered a considerable pecuniary loss; but we feel assured that if they come back—as they inform us they shall —at a more favorable season of the year, they will receive a more satisfactory return for their endeavors. We wish them unlimited success wherever they go.

BANGOR POLICE COURT.

BEFORE JUDGE GOODENOW.

He was fined $5 and costs on the first, and was committed in default of payment. The second case was both plooed to 3 o'clock Friday afternoon.

John Fury, for drunkenness was fined $5 and costs and went to jail.

Dennis Dr. coll and Thomas Sullivan, two sailors were fined $3 and costs each for being drunk which they paid.

THE ALDINE. In consequence of rumors affecting the stability of that superb art journal, the Aldine, its publishers have issued a circular, giving assurance that it is not in any embarrassment whatever. As a commercial undertaking, they say, it has been from the start a remarkable success, and is, to-day, more prosperous than it has ever been before. The Aldine is the property of the Aldine Company, the organization of which, last month, brought to the enterprise an additional paid up capital of $200,000. The brain which originated still controls and directs the production of each issue, and it is absolutely past in that a organization possessing every facility and backed with ample capital, will be able to go on faster and surer to the fullest development of an idea, the boldness of which elicited the warmest enthusiasm.

THE WEATHER-MAN. The following, which we clip from the Boston Globe, will have a familiar look to our readers —

SUNDAY—Thunder may will be warm and fine and Monday, Friday night and Saturday cooler a part and rather ominous, but only threatening a change. All foul aspects seem likely to be postponed at least till Saturday night. The first week in September is a stirring time and volcanic period of more than ordinary strength.

F. L. CAPEN.

Boston, Aug. 28, 1874.

THE MICHIGAN REPUBLICANS. The Republican State Convention at Lansing, Michigan, on Wednesday, renominated Governor Bagley, with H. H Holt for Lt Governor; E. G. D. Holden, Secretary of State; W. E. McCreery, Treasurer; Ralph Ely, Auditor; L. H. Clapp, Land Com'r; D. D. Briggs, Supt. Public Instruction. Resolutions were adopted which, after challenging the scrutiny of the acts of the Republican party, and claiming that it ever stood for the advance line of human progress, has forfeited no promises and is steadily reducing the public debt, state that no reason yet exists for resigning the reins of power into the hands of a party whose last public act brought civil war and disgrace upon the country.

The resolutions indorse the financial measure of Congress as a wise medium between conflicting interests; recognize the present as the best paper currency we have ever had; demand that specie payment shall be kept steady in view; favor a guarded free banking and denounce repudiation in any form or degree. An earnest appeal is made to the Government to protect the colored race in their civil and political rights and secure them equal educational advantages and privileges. A resolution endorsing the principles of the President's veto was also adopted.

Even no conservative a journal as the Portland Advertiser is able to perceive something more serious than "election boorbacks" in the reports of the murder and persecution of colored men reaching us daily from the South. It says:

If war of races does not break out in Tennessee it will not be the fault of a certain class of the whites. The outrage perpetrated in Gibson county in that State yesterday would be likely to incite attempts at revenge from the most peaceful citizens. It appears that sixteen negroes, who were simply suspected of preparing for the outbreak, were taken from the jail by masked men, and six of them killed. The fate of the rest is not known, but may be guessed.

THE ALABAMA REPUBLICANS. The Alabama Republican State Convention adjourned Saturday, after a three days session at Montgomery. The resolutions declare:

Unshaken confidence and unalterable devotion to the great principles of human liberty, viz: The civil and political equality of all men without distinction of race or color. We have never claimed nor desired and do not now, the social equality of different races or individuals of the same race, nor will we reject the issues of race against race tendered by the Democratic party and which, if persisted in by that party, will plunge us again into war with the government of the United States. We neither desire nor seek the invasion of the rights of white people by the colored, but only ask equal advantages in matters of public and common right. The Republican party does not desire or seek mixed schools or mixed accommodations for colored people. We want no special equality enforced by laws we recognize the fact that every house is sacred from intrusion, and that in a free country every one can dictate for himself. We demand a vigorous execution of the laws of the State and the United States for the protection of life, liberty and property, and call on the Governor to take all legal means to that end and bring to justice all persons offending against the laws. Murder, by lying in ambush, whether by one or many, must be put an end to, and the peace and security of the humblest home be respected and protected. A pledge is given to use the means of the State for the payment of all its just debts and provide for a prompt adjustment of its railroad indebtedness, and to put an end to all further indorsement of bonds of all private corporations
